

Association of Northwest Weavers' Guilds Standing Rules

Amended at Annual Membership Meeting Online Vote

Approved August 1, 2026

I: MEMBERS

1.1 The following States and Provinces are included in the eligible region of northwest North America: Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming, Alberta, British Columbia, Northwest Territories, Saskatchewan and Yukon.

1.2 Only organized guilds or associations defined in the Bylaws are eligible for guild membership in ANWG.

1.3 The application for guild membership in ANWG shall include the following:

- a. The names and contact information of the applicant guild's President and Representative to ANWG.
- b. Full payment of the annual dues.

1.4 The application for individual or association affiliate membership shall include the name and address of the individual or association and other information requested on the membership form with dues.

1.5 Dues.

- a. Annual dues for member guilds shall be payable September 1 and assessed at the rate of one dollar ($1) per member based on the total number of members as of the end of the most recent membership year, June 30.
- b. Dues for affiliate members shall be $25 for individuals and $35 for associations, payable September 1 of each year.

1.6 Each member guild's representative shall be provided by website link:

- a. The current Bylaws and the Standing Rules;
- b. Instructions for accessing the ANWG website;
- c. A current list of member guilds with the names of their Representatives and the member guild's contact information, and
- d. A current list of the ANWG officers and Board members, with their contact information and areas of responsibility.

1.7 An ANWG annual membership roster shall be prepared and posted to the guild pages on the website no later than January 30th of each year.

1.8 Each member guild is responsible for providing accurate and current information to the ANWG Membership Director and/or Website Admin, for posting on the ANWG website. This information should include the names of the officers and ANWG Representative with contact information for the member guild, as well as current and on-going activities, meeting schedules, program topics and any other information that might be of interest to other member guilds or the public.

1.9 If a member guild maintains its own website, it may provide a link between the ANWG website.

1.10 ANWG is not responsible for reimbursement to Representatives for the expense of attending any ANWG meeting.

II: MEETINGS

2.1 Annual Membership Meetings.

Notice of the Annual Membership Meeting shall contain the following: The time and location of the Meeting; a proposed agenda for the Meeting, instructions for introducing new business, and proxy forms.

- a. Member guilds that do not receive proper notice of membership meetings must file a written objection of improper notice with the ANWG Secretary upon being informed of the meeting. Attendance at the meeting without filing such an objection shall constitute a waiver of notice.
- b. The ANWG Secretary or the President shall prepare a proposed agenda for the Annual Membership Meeting. This agenda will serve as notification of intent to address said items at the Meeting, so that attending Representatives may consult with their guilds, and non-attending guilds may prepare instructions for the use of their proxy.
- c. Any ANWG member guild or ANWG Executive Board member may place an item on the proposed agenda by providing the ANWG Secretary with notification, specifying the item to be considered. The ANWG Secretary must receive this written notification at least seven (7) days in advance of the Annual Membership Meeting.
- d. At the Annual Membership Meeting, any delegate may introduce from the floor in accordance with the procedures outlined in "Robert's Rules of Order", items for consideration which do not require notice.
- e. The proposed agenda shall include: A certification by the Secretary as to whether a quorum is present, in person or by proxy; Formal adoption of the proposed agenda; Reading and approval of the minutes; Reports of the officers, Executive Board and Standing Committees; Reports of special committees, if any; any unfinished business; any new Business, and Announcements.
- f. The individual listed as a member guild's ANWG Representative, as of January 1st of the current year, will be that guild's delegate for that year's Annual Membership Meeting unless the ANWG Secretary is notified, in writing, of the appointment of an alternate delegate by the guild's president or guild representative.
- g. The Annual Membership Meeting shall be scheduled so as not to conflict with Conference workshops or seminars, nor shall attendance at the Annual Membership Meeting require registration at the Conference.

2.2 Any ANWG member guild may choose to vote by proxy rather than send a delegate to a membership meeting. It is the responsibility of the member guild and its Representative to choose a holder for its proxy, who will best represent it, from the attending guild Representatives. Proxy forms must be signed by the guild's Representative and must designate which other ANWG member guild Representative is holder of the proxy. Completed proxy forms may be delivered to the ANWG Secretary seven (7) days prior to the meeting for which it is designated in order to validate the proxy, or may be hand-delivered at the meeting by the designated proxy.

III: OFFICERS

e. Administer internet-based services used by ANWG for communications and file storage.

f. Update the visual design as needed to keep the website appearance fresh.

g. Maintain the web domain and infrastructure for the ANWG conference website and services.

3.7 The Communications Director shall perform and oversee the performance of the following duties:

a. Lead the Communications Committee and oversee publication of the ANWG newsletter on a schedule as agreed upon by the committee and approved by the board.

3.8 Membership Director shall receive, maintain and distribute membership information as well as perform other duties assigned by the President, the Executive Board or as prescribed by the Bylaws or the Standing Rules.

3.9 Education Director shall provide educational materials and evaluate requests for ANWG grant monies, as well as other duties assigned by the President, the Executive Board or as prescribed in the Bylaws or Standing Rules.

IV: EXECUTIVE BOARD

4.1 Executive Board responsibilities shall include:

- a. General supervision of affairs within ANWG between Annual Membership Meetings.
- b. Determine the time and place of Board meetings.
- c. Schedule, arrange and conduct the Annual Membership Meeting.
- d. Make recommendations to the general membership.
- e. Ensure that a summary of Minutes of Executive Board meetings is published in the following ANWG newsletter.
- f. Arrange for the biennial examination of ANWG financial records by an ad hoc committee, or if necessary, a licensed accountant, or other authorized individual.
- g. Perform other duties as prescribed by the Bylaws and Standing Rules.
- h. Set ANWG's share of any excess income over expenses in negotiation with the Member Guild sponsoring a conference.

4.2 The Executive Board shall be subject to the wishes of the ANWG membership and shall take no action which conflicts with action taken by the ANWG Membership.

4.3 Proper notice and methods for holding Executive Board meetings shall be determined by the Executive Board at its first meeting at the beginning of an incoming president's term.

4.4 Special meetings of the Executive Board may be called by the President, or by the written request of at least three (3) Board members. Proper notice must be given.

4.5 Any member of a member guild may attend an Executive Board meeting. The Executive Board shall provide information and facilitate inclusion for non-Board members upon written request.

4.6 Executive Board meetings may be held electronically by agreement of the board members for any or all meetings. The Board shall adopt and follow procedures for electronic meetings based on principles of Roberts Rules of Order.

V: COMMITTEES

5.1 Communications Committee: The chairperson of this Committee shall be the Communications Director. The chairperson shall appoint the committee members. The duties of this Committee shall be:

- a. Gather the material for, prepare and publish the ANWG newsletter.
- b. Distribute the newsletter to every member, by email and post on the ANWG website.
- c. Include in the newsletter accurate and full summaries of all meetings, as well as dates, times and locations of upcoming meetings.
- d. Distribute the newsletter to other organizations approved by the Executive Board.
- e. Perform other duties as assigned by the President or Executive Board, or as prescribed in the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

5.2 Membership Committee: The chairperson of this Committee shall be the Membership Director. The chairperson shall appoint the committee members as needed. The duties of the Membership Committee shall be:

- a. Receive and keep a record of all ANWG member guilds, including the name and contact information of the guild's ANWG Representative and President.
- b. Distribute membership rosters to each member guild on an annual basis if requested.
- c. Distribute membership applications upon request, and process completed applications.
- d. Provide the Communications Committee and the Secretary with membership list updates as requested.
- e. Perform other duties as assigned by the President or Executive Board, or as prescribed in the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

5.3 Education Committee: The chairperson of this Committee shall be the Education Director. The chairperson shall appoint the committee members, and should include individuals who have had experience with previous ANWG educational activities, e.g., educational conferences. The duties of the Education Committee shall be:

- a. Evaluate requests for grant monies and other ANWG resources for educational needs, with recommendations for action to the Executive Board.
- b. Other duties as assigned by the President or Executive Board, or prescribed in the Bylaws or Standing Rules.

5.4 Technology Committee: The chairperson of this Committee shall be the Technology Director. The chairperson shall appoint the committee members as needed. The duties of the Technology Committee shall be:

- a. Maintain content on the website, including guild listings, events, and classified ads.
- b. Work with the Communications Committee to assist with creation and distribution of the ANWG newsletter.
- c. Perform other duties as assigned by the President or Executive Board, or as prescribed in the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

5.5 Conference Committee: The Executive Board shall actively seek and encourage member guilds to host a biennial educational conference to be held during the odd-numbered years. Guilds willing to host such an event should submit a proposal for the conference, including a request for seed monies to the Executive Board. The Executive Board's approval of this proposal shall include the signed ANWG Host Agreement documents and the agreement by the member guild to hold the ANWG Annual Membership Meeting in conjunction with the conference. The Member guild(s), hosting a conference, shall designate an individual to act as liaison between the conference committee and the Executive Board, usually the Conference Chair or Co-Chairs. This person shall become an ex officio member of the Executive Board.

The profits accruing to ANWG from the host guild of any conference shall be designated at 20% unless otherwise agreed to. If no member guild(s) propose to host a biennial conference, the Executive Board may seek other means to provide such conferences or alternative educational events.

5.6 Nominating Committee: The Second Vice President shall appoint the chairperson of the Nominating Committee. The Committee shall consist of three to five (3-5) members. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the chairperson, and shall include members from throughout the ANWG region. No current officer may serve on this Committee. The chairperson shall select the Committee members prior to the Annual Membership Meeting and will announce their names at that Meeting. It is the duty of the Nominating Committee to present to the ANWG membership a slate of officers for election. The chairperson of the Nominating Committee shall provide the Communications Committee chairperson and the Secretary with the recommended slate of officers and their statements to the membership in time to be included in the notice of the Annual Membership Meeting at which the election is to take place. There is no restriction to the number of candidates for each office the Nominating Committee may put forward, as long as there is at least one candidate per office. The chairperson or President shall conduct elections at the Annual Membership Meeting. The Nominating Committee will assemble a list of prospective chairpersons to serve at the request of the incoming President, with the approval of the Executive Board.

5.7 The President and the Committee chairperson, with the approval of the Executive Board, may include an individual who is not a member of a member guild, as a Committee member where required technical skills cannot be found within the ANWG membership.
